

It would be nice to enjoy dinner or reading a book without jumping up to answer the phone only to hear nothing and then the click when the telemarketer comes on the line. The do not call list in Wisconsin has stopped the majority of those annoying calls. I don't want to be a prisoner in my own house.